Subscribers can get clinical resources providing more information on every topic covered in any issue. Go to HospitalPharmacistsLetter.com. If you’re not a subscriber, call us at 209-472-2240.

Hospital Pharmacist’s Letter is supported entirely by subscriptions and does not accept any advertising. Every effort is made to keep the contents completely objective. References Cited in This Issue: The following references show some of the sources our editors used to formulate the Letter. In addition, our editors have discussed the contents with over 80 experts and subjected the contents to review and input by practicing pharmacists, government agencies, and national organizations to bring subscribers the most accurate information and practical advice. We believe the material presented in this Letter to be the most current available at the time of publication. The reader is responsible for using professional judgment to confirm and interpret the findings presented here before using the information.

Direct inquiries to: Hospital Pharmacist’s Letter, 3120 West March Lane, Stockton CA 95219 • TEL 209-472-2240 • FAX 209-472-2249 • EMAIL mail@PLetter.com

All CE is done online.

To begin a subscription, mail, telephone, fax, or email your name, address, and phone #. VISA, MC, AMEX, or DISC accepted.

Hospital Pharmacist’s Letter is an independent service providing unbiased drug information for subscribers. The contents are copyrighted. © 2019 Therapeutic Research Center. All Rights Reserved. Reproduction or reuse is strictly prohibited by law. Photocopying is illegal. Contact the publisher for a Group Subscription.